2 Sharing the Gifts of Communion (Augsburg Agreement)

3 An Agreement of Full Communion between the Evangelical Lutheran Church
4 in Bavaria and The Episcopal Church.

5

6 Introduction

7 1 Since the 1970s, a fruitful partnership has been built up in Bavaria between the 8 Convocation of Episcopal Churches in Europe, part of The Episcopal Church (TEC), and the 9 Evangelical Lutheran Church in Bavaria (Evangelisch-Lutherische Kirche in Bayern; ELKB), 10 which expresses itself in a consistent history of sharing in worship and prayer, and 11 working together in diaconal projects.

12

13 2 Through this work together, Episcopalians and Lutherans in Bavaria have come to 14 understand more deeply their shared mission and the bonds between their churches.
15 Building on existing agreements between Anglicans/Episcopalians and Lutherans in 16 Germany, North America and Northern Europe, TEC and the ELKB are now ready to move 17 into a relationship of full communion, enabling full interchangeability of ministries and 18 full participation in one another's mission.

19

20 3 This current agreement, made specifically between TEC and the ELKB, has been informed 21 by a number of previous agreements between Anglican and Lutheran churches:

22 • the Meissen Agreement (1991), between the Church of England and the 23 Evangelical Church in Germany (EKD), achieves mutual recognition of 24 churches and mutual Eucharistic hospitality, but does not achieve full 25 communion or interchangeability of ordained ministries;<sup>1</sup>

26 and on the three regional agreements of (full) communion between Anglicans and 27 Lutherans:

28 • the Porvoo Common Statement (1992/93), between the European member 29 churches of the Anglican Communion and most of the Nordic and Baltic 30 Lutheran churches;<sup>2</sup>

31 • Called to Common Mission (1999/2000), between TEC and the Evangelical 32 Lutheran Church in America;<sup>3</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Neither the ELKB nor TEC is a party to the Porvoo Common Statement. The signatories of the Porvoo Common Statement are, from the LWF: the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Denmark, the Estonian Evangelical Lutheran Church, the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Finland, the Lutheran Church in Great Britain, the Church of Iceland, Evangelical Lutheran Church of Latvia Abroad, the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Lithuania, the Church of Norway, the Church of Sweden; and from the Anglican Communion: the Church of England, the Church of Ireland, the Lusitanian Church of Portugal, the Scottish Episcopal Church, the Reformed Episcopal Church of Spain, and the Church in Wales. The Evangelical Lutheran Church of Latvia has observer status, which is intended to lead to membership. The United Evangelical Lutheran Church of Germany (VELKD), of which ELKB is a part, has the less binding guest status.

33 · the Waterloo Declaration (2001), between the Anglican Church of Canada 34 and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada.<sup>4</sup>

35 Through its membership in the Lutheran World Federation (LWF), the ELKB is in 36 communion with the Scandinavian and Nordic Lutheran churches, the Evangelical 37 Lutheran Church in America (ELCA) and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada. TEC, 38 the Anglican Church of Canada, and the British and Irish Anglican churches are in 39 communion through their membership of the Anglican Communion. The LWF and the 40 Anglican Communion are also linked through the Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of 41 Justification (1999) agreed between the LWF and the Roman Catholic Church, the 42 substance of which was affirmed by the Anglican Communion in 2017.

43 4 In many parts of the world, member churches of the LWF and the Anglican Communion 44 work in close cooperation, with or without an agreement, and the Third Anglican 45 Lutheran International Commission urged churches to develop or adopt agreements that 46 reflect this cooperation.<sup>5</sup> In this spirit, this agreement is offered as a further example and 47 invitation to other member churches of the Anglican Communion and the Lutheran 48 World Federation to consider in their contexts how such a move forward could be 49 accomplished.

50
51

52 5 Relationships between TEC and the ELKB have thus developed within the context of a 53 long history of ecumenical dialogue between Lutheran and Anglican/Episcopal churches, 54 which has shaped and enriched the experiences of many Anglicans and Lutherans. In 55 particular, through Called to Common Mission, mutual relationships between the ELCA 56 and TEC have become a lived reality. As distinctive churches with their own particular 57 relationships, in making this current agreement, TEC and the ELKB draw on the extensive 58 network of mutual experience of mission and ministry, as well as the experience of 59 working and worshipping together locally. The purpose of the current agreement is to 60 foster and deepen that common work through recognizing a relationship of full 61 communion between TEC and the ELKB.

62

63 6 TEC and the ELKB have already taken important steps towards full communion. The 1987 64 Niagara Report of the Anglican-Lutheran International Continuation Committee and 65 Receiving One Another's Ordained Ministries of the Inter-Anglican Standing Commission 66 on Unity, Faith and Order (received by ACC-16, 2016), define stages of relations between 67 churches. Relationships between the TEC and the ELKB have long-since reached stage 1 68 (recognition of one another as churches) and stage 2 (provisional structures exist which 69 promote mutual growth). The intention in this agreement is to move to stage 3, the 70 exploration of changing particular practices with respect to episkopé which will enable 71 the full interchangeability of ministries, and stage 4, the public declaration and 72 celebration of full communion.

73

74 7 In moving into this relationship, TEC and the ELKB understand full communion to be a 75 relation between distinct churches in which each recognizes the other as a catholic and 76 apostolic church holding the essentials of the Christian faith. Within this new relation, 77 churches become interdependent while remaining autonomous. Full communion

<sup>4</sup> Neither the ELKB nor TEC is a party to the Waterloo Declaration, but the purpose of the Memorandum of Mutual Recognition of Relations of Full Communion is to link the Waterloo Declaration and Called to Common Mission.

78 includes the establishment of appropriate recognized organs of regular consultation and 79 communication, including episcopal collegiality, to express and strengthen the fellowship 80 and enable common witness, life, and service. Diversity is preserved, but this diversity 81 does not divide and is not static. Neither church seeks to remake the other in its own 82 image, but each is open to the gifts of the other as it seeks to be faithful to Christ and his 83 mission. They are together committed to a visible unity in the church’s mission to 84 proclaim the gospel and administer the sacraments.<sup>6</sup>

85
86 8 Specifically, TEC and the ELKB understand this to include welcoming one another’s 87 members to receive sacramental and other pastoral ministrations; mutual recognition 88 and interchangeability of ordained ministries; freedom to use one another’s liturgies; 89 mutual invitations to participate liturgically in one another’s ordinations and installations 90 of clergy, including bishops; and the development of suitable structures for consultation 91 to express, strengthen, and enable common life, witness, and service, to the glory of God 92 and the salvation of the world.<sup>7</sup>

93
94 9 Such a relationship is based on:
95 • a common confession of the apostolic faith in word and life;
96 • the sharing of one baptism, the celebration of one eucharist and the service of a 97 reconciled, common ministry;
98 • bonds of communion which support the churches at every level to guard and 99 interpret the apostolic faith, to teach authoritatively, to share resources, and to bear 100 effective witness in the world.<sup>8</sup>

101 Signs of Communion that already exist

102 10 Lutherans and Anglicans recognize that they already share communion in the Triune God 103 through their acceptance of the common gift of the Holy Scriptures; their affirmation of 104 the sacraments of baptism and the eucharist as constituent for the church; their shared 105 affirmation of the Apostles’ and Nicene creeds; their shared traditions of worship, 106 spirituality and theology; and their distinct but related experiences of the Reformation.

107
108 11 Anglicans and Lutherans both recognize Christ’s church as “the assembly of all believers 109 among whom the gospel is taught purely and the sacraments are rightly administered”.<sup>9</sup> 110 Anglicans and Lutherans hold the ordained ministry of Word and sacrament to be a gift 111 of God to the church, and recognize the necessity of structures of pastoral oversight and 112 authority.

114 12 Anglicans and Lutherans have never condemned one another as churches. TEC and the 115 ELKB now affirm that they recognize in one another the essentials of the one catholic and 116 apostolic faith, to which their statements of faith witness, including the Augsburg 117 Confession, Luther’s Small Catechism, and TEC’s Book of Common Prayer (1979), and they 118 affirm the substance of the doctrinal consensus articulated by successive international 119 Anglican-Lutheran dialogues.

13 TEC and the ELKB affirm the cooperation between Episcopalians and Lutherans in Bavaria, including the mutual invitation to receive communion, to share services and joint diaconal work. In the absence of a formal agreement, the provisions of the Meissen Agreement pertaining to ministry and worship have tacitly been taken to apply for TEC and the ELKB in this local context.

Ministry and oversight

14 The key question for this ecumenical relationship has been that of the theology of ordained ministry, and in particular that of episcopal ministry and its relation to succession. This agreement welcomes the consensus reached on this question through the Porvoo Common Statement, Called to Common Mission, and the Waterloo Declaration and affirms the theological contribution made by those agreements in moving towards a shared understanding. This agreement draws on those earlier agreements, as well as on further reflection specific to the relationship between TEC and the ELKB, to apply the consensus already reached to the specific situation in Bavaria, and thus to the German context.

15 Together with the Porvoo Common Statement, TEC and the ELKB affirm that “the primary manifestation of apostolic succession is to be found in the apostolic tradition of the Church as a whole. The succession is an expression of the permanence and, therefore, of the continuity of Christ’s own mission in which the Church participates.”<sup>10</sup>

16 Together with Called to Common Mission, TEC and the ELKB “acknowledge that one another’s ordained ministries are and have been given by God to be instruments of God’s grace in the service of God’s people, and possess not only the inward call of the Spirit, but also Christ’s commission through his body, the church.” They agree that “ordained ministers are called and set apart for the one ministry of Word and Sacrament, and that they do not cease thereby to share in the priesthood of all believers”, and that these ministers “fulfill their particular ministries within the community of the faithful and not apart from it.” They recognize that “the priesthood of all believers affirms the need for ordained ministry, while at the same time setting ministry in proper relationship to the laity.”<sup>11</sup>

17 Together with Called to Common Mission, TEC and the ELKB also affirm that “personal, collegial, and communal oversight is embodied and exercised in both [...] churches in a diversity of forms, in fidelity to the teaching and mission of the apostles.”<sup>12</sup> Together with the LWF’s 2007 Statement Episcopal Ministry within the Apostolicity of the Church, TEC and the ELKB affirm that in both churches, “Bishops are called to a special role of oversight in the church, but the wider community also is called to participate in oversight and to judge the way in which episcopal ministry is being carried out.”<sup>13</sup> They acknowledge also that in some other churches of the LWF, and also some other churches of the EKD, those who exercise such “special role of oversight” are not referred to as bishop, but rather, for instance, as Church President or Präses, similarly a Regional

<sup>12</sup> Called to Common Mission, §7. The terminology “personal, collegial, and communal” is drawn from the discussion of ministry in Baptism – Eucharist – Ministry (WCC Faith and Order Paper 111; 1982), §26.

<sup>13</sup> Episcopal Ministry within the Apostolicity of the Church (The Lund Statement), § 50.

163 Bishop may be known as Landessuperintendent or Oberkirchenrat.<sup>14</sup> TEC and the ELKB 164 also recognize that this ministry of oversight – episkopé – is exercised not only through 165 bishops but also through the synods and other leadership structures of the two churches, 166 and that the relationship between bishops and these structures is an important aspect of 167 the ministry of oversight in both churches.<sup>15</sup>
168

169 18 Together with Called to Common Mission, TEC and the ELKB agree that the historic 170 episcopate “can be locally adapted and reformed in the service of the gospel.”<sup>16</sup> Since the 171 sixteenth century, the traditions from which both churches emerged have experienced 172 both continuity and change in their structures of episkopé. Different practices of 173 oversight developed in local contexts in response to diverse ecclesiological and political 174 realities and theological understandings. Anglicans maintained episcopal-diocesan 175 structures and continued to use the term “bishop” to describe these ministries after the 176 Reformation. Lutherans in Germany provided episkopé by adapting existing structures, 177 and described these ministries using a variety of terms, including “superintendent”, their 178 preferred translation of the New Testament term episkopos.
179

180 19 The establishment of Anglican parishes on the North American continent spread steadily 181 following the first recorded Anglican celebration of Holy Communion in North America in 182 1607 in Jamestown, Virginia. Prior to the American Revolution, representatives of the 183 Bishop of London known as commissaries provided oversight in some colonies. In the 184 context of American Independence from Great Britain, the first American bishops were 185 elected, and in 1789 The Episcopal Church was constituted as a separate ecclesiastical 186 jurisdiction and as a church independent of state authority. From this time TEC has 187 affirmed the importance of synodical government and bishops have been elected. The 188 structures established in 1789 continue to the present.
189

190 20 General Convention, made up of the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies (equal 191 numbers of elected clergy and lay people), sets the policy of the Episcopal Church. Its 192 bishops are democratically elected by their respective diocesan conventions or synods 193 and are answerable to the House of Bishops; they are to be servants of the church and 194 not its lords. The Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church is a member of the House of 195 Bishops, who since 1926 has been elected by that House, with confirmation by the House 196 of Deputies. A similar structure is mirrored in the dioceses, which have diocesan 197 conventions (made up of the diocesan clergy and elected lay delegates), that work 198 closely with the bishop. A bishop is elected at the diocesan convention by the clergy and 199 lay delegates, and is consecrated only after confirmation of this election by a majority of 200 TEC’s diocesan bishops and diocesan standing committees representing the whole 201 church. At the consecration, bishops are consecrated through prayer and laying on of 202 hands by at least three bishops, usually including bishops of the ELCA and other full 203 communion partners, with the involvement of representatives of the diocese, both 204 priests and lay persons, especially in presenting the bishop-elect for consecration, and in 205 the liturgy.
206

<sup>14</sup> The Lund Statement summarizes these roles as “episcopal ministers”; to avoid confusion, this present statement refers to “ministers exercising episkopé”.

- 207 21 The Evangelical Lutheran Church in Bavaria was formed in 1808 after the foundation of 208 the Kingdom of Bavaria in 1806. The General Synod was established in 1848, initially 209 sharing responsibility with the ruling (Roman-Catholic) Bavarian monarch who acted as 210 summus episcopus, in direct continuity with the role of the late medieval German prince 211 bishops.<sup>17</sup> After the fall of the Bavarian monarchy in 1918, the ELKB (Landeskirche) was 212 constituted, with a church president (Kirchenpräsident), who since 1933 has been 213 referred to as bishop (Landesbischof). The bishop works together with the Synod 214 (Landessynode, made up of two-thirds lay people and one third clergy) and its Executive 215 Committee (Landessynodalausschuss), and also chairs the Church Governing Board 216 (Landeskirchenrat), which is responsible for the day-to-day running of the church.
217 Oversight is exercised through these four church-governing bodies. The Landessynode 218 elects the Landesbischof. Regional bishops (Regionalbischöfe) or Oberkirchenräte, who 219 are members of the Landeskirchenrat, share the responsibility for oversight in their 220 episcopal areas or areas of responsibility through ordination and visitation.
221
- 222 22 Today, pastors of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Bavaria are ordained by the 223 Landesbischof or regional bishops. Ordination is a onetime act. Central elements of the 224 liturgy are the prayer for the Holy Spirit, the laying on of hands and the blessing of the 225 ordinand. The ordination rite provides that assistants say a biblical word of blessing and 226 also lay on hands. These assistants are not restricted to the ordained, and may include 227 (for instance) members of the parish council (vestry) or the candidate’s family and 228 friends. The installation of a bishop is understood as the installation of an already 229 ordained pastor into a new office now with episcopal functions. The Landesbischof is 230 installed by the presiding bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Germany; the 231 regional bishops are installed by the Landesbischof. It is good practice – but not strictly 232 necessary – that at such installations bishops or ministers exercising episkopé in sister 233 churches within the Lutheran World Federation or other denominations are present and 234 assist in the laying on of hands.
235
- 236 23 In both TEC and the ELKB, these ministries of episkopé are therefore exercised personally, 237 collegially and communally.<sup>18</sup> Bishops share the exercise of episkopé with the synodical 238 structures of the church. Ministers exercising episkopé constitute “a supra-239 congregational form of ordained ministry for the sake of spiritual discernment and 240 leadership.”<sup>19</sup> In both churches, clergy are ordained only by ministers who exercise 241 episkopé: the diocesan bishop or Landesbischof, suffragan or regional bishops.
242
- 243 24 Together with the LWF’s Lund Statement, Episcopal Ministry within the Apostolicity of the 244 Church, TEC and the ELKB affirm that these forms of episkopé are intended to preserve 245 the apostolic nature of the church and to interpret it for today. Through these structures 246 of episkopé, the church “exercises responsibility for its doctrine and practices through 247 open, critical deliberation and transparent ecclesial processes.”<sup>20</sup> 248
- 249 25 TEC and the ELKB affirm also with the Lund Statement that a bishop does not exercise 250 his/her ministry in isolation: “together with teachers of theology, pastors in 251 congregations, persons called to a ministry of education and committed lay persons,

---

252 episcopal ministers [i.e. ministers exercising episkopé – ed.] are especially called to judge 253 doctrine in the life of the church, and to reject teaching that is contradictory to the 254 gospel. The responsibility of governing bodies in the church (parish councils and church 255 synods) is also to take formal decisions to ensure that the institutional, practical life of 256 the church is in good keeping with the message of the gospel and witnesses to it.”<sup>21</sup>

257

258 26 In the words of the Anglican Bishops’ Appeal to All Christian People (1920), TEC and the 259 ELKB affirm that both churches have maintained and been served by an ordained 260 ministry truly faithful to the gospel, and that the ordained ministries of both churches 261 have always been, and continue to be, “manifestly blessed and owned by the Holy Spirit 262 as effective means of grace”.<sup>22</sup>

263

264 27 The four articles of the Anglican Chicago-Lambeth Quadrilateral (1888) remain the 265 foundation for Anglican/Episcopal ecumenical relations. Anglicans and Lutherans have 266 long agreed on its first three articles which affirm the foundational nature of Holy 267 Scripture, the sacraments of baptism and the Eucharist, and the Apostles’ and Nicene 268 Creeds. The Quadrilateral sets out as the fourth basis for church unity: “the historic 269 episcopate, locally adapted in the methods of its administration to the varying needs of 270 the nations and peoples called of God into the unity of [God’s] Church.”<sup>23</sup> TEC and the 271 ELKB affirm that in both churches, episkopé is exercised in a form that is congruent with 272 this article.

273

274 28 With the Meissen Agreement, TEC and the ELKB “acknowledge that personal and collegial 275 oversight (episkopé) is embodied and exercised in [their] churches in a variety of forms, 276 episcopal and non-episcopal, as a visible sign of the Church’s unity and continuity in 277 apostolic life, mission and ministry.”<sup>24</sup> However, the ELKB and TEC can go further than 278 the Meissen Agreement: on the basis of the congruence in their understanding and 279 practice of episkopé and synodical government TEC and the ELKB are able to enter into a 280 relationship of full communion, with interchangeability of ordained ministries.

281

282 Continuity in the Gospel: Historic and evangelical succession

283 29 For both TEC and the ELKB, continuity in the proclamation of the gospel is of primary 284 importance in establishing the apostolic character of the Church. This is preserved 285 through “succession” However, the focus of the term “succession” is different in the 286 traditions of the two churches.

287

288 30 Within TEC succession is understood as the orderly succession of bishops ordained by 289 their predecessors as integral to the preservation of apostolic continuity in the 290 proclamation of the gospel. This represents an episcopal tradition which can be traced to 291 the ancient church, in which bishops already in this succession maintain the integrity of 292 the faith by ordaining newly elected bishops with prayer and the laying on of hands.<sup>25</sup> 293 TEC, like all the churches of the Anglican Communion, asserts that its bishops stand in 294 historic succession understood in this way, through the consecration of new bishops

295 through prayer and laying on of hands by at least three existing bishops. Acknowledging 296 this background, Anglicans have still recognized in their previous agreements of (full) 297 communion that the apostolic faith is preserved, not exclusively through the succession 298 of bishops, but by the whole church, that is, also through the ministry of priests and 299 deacons and of the whole people of God.
300

301 31 The ELKB understands succession in terms of the continuity of this apostolic faith, rooted 302 in the proclamation of the gospel and supported by the ordained ministry. As expressed 303 in the Augsburg Confession (art. 7), the Reformation emphasized the church as 304 evangelical, established through the continuous preaching of the gospel and the 305 celebration of the sacraments. This is the basis of the apostolic succession. The Augsburg 306 Confession (art. 14) teaches that “no one should publicly teach in the Church or 307 administer the Sacraments unless properly called.” Commenting on this, Article 14 of the 308 Apology (1531) affirms the Lutheran commitment to “willingly retain ecclesiastical and 309 canonical order”. Luther and other Reformers worked to ensure that structures were put 310 in place to maintain the true preaching of the gospel and celebration of the sacraments.
311 These structures have always included forms of oversight such as superintendents and 312 visitations. Through and since the Reformation, this continuity in local structures has 313 therefore been associated with a conscious conviction that apostolic teaching and faith 314 must be not only rediscovered but also preserved. Those involved in oversight are 315 installed through prayer and the laying on of hands.
316

317 32 Both TEC and the ELKB therefore recognize, as affirmed by Called to Common Mission, 318 that in the context of the ordained ministry and the ministry of the whole people of God 319 both churches “value and maintain a ministry of episkopé as one of the ways ... in which 320 the apostolic succession of the church is visibly expressed and personally symbolized in 321 fidelity to the gospel through the ages.”<sup>26</sup> 322

323 33 In moving forward together, TEC and the ELKB commit to share an episcopal succession 324 that is both evangelical (true to the gospel) and historic (true to tradition), including 325 regularly a bishop of the other church to participate with at least two other ministers 326 exercising episkopé in the laying on of hands at the ordinations/installations of their own 327 bishops as a sign of the unity and apostolic continuity of the whole church.<sup>27</sup> TEC and the 328 ELKB believe that the fullness of the apostolic tradition preserved in each church will 329 deepen as a result of the relationship of full communion, through the shared ministry of 330 bishops and presbyters and of the whole people of God.
331

332 34 TEC and the ELKB share congruent understandings of episkopé, but this does not commit 333 the two churches to a unified concept of the office of bishop. TEC and the ELKB 334 acknowledge that there is a diversity of how the office of bishops is lived out in each 335 church. TEC and the ELKB affirm that the fact that the liturgy of introducing bishops into 336 office can be understood as installation or as ordination, or that tenure in office may 337 vary, or that the status of bishops when they leave office may differ does not hinder us 338 entering into full communion.

<sup>27</sup> Called to Common Mission, §12.

- 340 35 In order to demonstrate more clearly the shared nature of the episkopé exercised by 341 bishops, both churches commit to ensuring that at the ordination/installation of bishops, 342 the whole church be visibly present through the involvement of lay people as assistants 343 in the ordination/installation and to working to include in their installation/ordination 344 rites an affirmation that the bishop will exercise episkopé in conjunction with the 345 synodical government of the church.
346
- 347 36 Each church remains free to explore its particular interpretation of the ministry of 348 bishops in evangelical and historic succession. This should be done in consultation with 349 one another. Each church maintains and can enter into relationships with other 350 churches, including relationships of (full) communion, which do not oblige the other 351 church to engage in that relationship. That is, this declaration of full communion does not 352 imply automatic communion of the one church with the communion partners of the 353 other church, although each church is encouraged to seek communion with the churches 354 with which the other is in communion.
355
- 356 37 Recognizing one another as churches that truly preach the gospel and duly administer 357 the holy sacraments,<sup>28</sup> TEC and the ELKB receive with thanksgiving the gift of unity which 358 is already given in Christ. Christians have repeatedly echoed the scriptural confession 359 that the unity of the church is both Christ's own work and his call to all Christians. It is the 360 task of the churches, and of all Christians, as well as Christ's gift. Every Christian – and 361 every church – must “make every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of 362 peace” (Ephesians 4:3), praying that they may rely upon, and willingly receive from one 363 another, the gifts given by Christ through his Spirit “for building up the body of Christ” in 364 love (Ephesians 4:16).
365
- 366 38 As TEC and the ELKB, we do not know to what new, recovered, or continuing tasks of 367 mission this relationship of full communion will lead our churches, but we give thanks to 368 God for leading us to this point, and entrust ourselves to that leading in the future, 369 confident that our full communion will be a witness to the gift and goal already present 370 in Christ, “so that God may be all in all” (1 Corinthians 15:28).

372 Actions and Commitments

- 373 39 We, The Episcopal Church and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Bavaria, declare 374 ourselves to be in full communion. Together, 375 a. We commit ourselves to continue and deepen our common life in mission and service, 376 to pray for and with one another and to share resources as appropriate in Bavaria, 377 recognizing that TEC is a very small minority there. We encourage regular collaboration 378 and consultation among members of our churches at all levels as appropriate.
379 b. We commit ourselves to offer sacramental and pastoral ministry to members of one 380 another's churches.
381 c. We commit ourselves to receive those who formally leave one church to move to the 382 other with the same status (for example baptized, communicant, confirmed) that they 383 held in their previous church.

- 384 40 The declaration of full communion between our two churches implies the immediate 385 recognition of currently serving bishops and pastors/priests of the one church by the 386 other.<sup>29</sup> TEC fully recognizes the ordained ministry of bishops and pastors currently 387 existing within the ELKB, acknowledging its pastors as ordained ministers in the Church of 388 God and its bishops and regional bishops as bishops exercising a ministry of personal 389 episkopé. Likewise, the ELKB fully recognizes the ordained ministry of bishops and priests 390 currently existing within TEC, acknowledging its priests as ordained ministers in the 391 Church of God and its bishops as bishops exercising a ministry of personal episkopé.
392 41 With full communion, interchangeability of ministries is given. We therefore commit 393 ourselves to welcome persons ordained in either of our churches to the office of 394 priest/pastor to serve, by invitation and in accordance with any regulations which are in 395 force, in that ministry in the receiving church without re-ordination. We affirm that 396 bishops may be invited to carry out in the other church, as appropriate, those ministries 397 which they exercise in their own, such as confirmation.
- 398 42 We commit ourselves, as a sign of the unity and continuity of the Church, to invite 399 a. one another's bishops regularly to participate in the laying on of hands at the 400 installation/ordination of bishops, with the expectation that a bishop from the other 401 church will be present at the ordination of the bishop of the Convocation and the 402 installation of the Landesbischof; 403 b. one another's pastors and priests to participate in the laying on of hands at the 404 ordination of pastors or priests in one another's churches; 405 c. one another's lay people, including both those who share in the exercise of episkopé 406 and members of local congregations, to participate in our churches' 407 ordinations/installations in ways which celebrate the ministry of the whole people of 408 God.
- 409 Such mutual invitations are understood as a call for the deepening of the lived 410 experience of our communion.
- 411 43 We commit ourselves also to continue our practice of inviting representatives of other 412 churches, representing the worldwide church, to participate at the 413 installation/ordination of bishops.
- 414 44 We commit ourselves to ensure that at the ordination/installation of bishops, the whole 415 church be visibly present through the involvement of lay people as assistants in the 416 ordination/installation and to work to include in our installation/ordination rites an 417 affirmation that the bishop will exercise episkopé in conjunction with the synodical 418 government of the church.
- 419 45 We commit ourselves to invite a representative of TEC to attend the synod of the ELKB 420 and a representative of the ELKB to attend the Convention of the Convocation of the 421 Episcopal Churches in Europe, and to keep one another informed about developments in 422 our two churches.
- 423 46 We commit ourselves to establishing a small continuation committee which for at least 424 seven years will undertake regular (at least annual) consultation regarding our 425 relationship, will initiate further work as needed, and can be consulted should any 426 questions or difficulties arise.
- 427 47 Each church agrees that the other church will continue its full communion relationship 428 with all the churches with whom it is already in communion. We encourage one another

<sup>29</sup> Deacons are not explicitly mentioned in this agreement. The Jerusalem Report of the Third Anglican Lutheran International Commission concluded that the church's expression of its diaconal character is context specific, so that different understandings of and practices with relation to the diaconate are to be expected and are therefore not communion dividing.

429 to seek communion with these churches as well, but recognize that our declaration of full 430 communion does not imply automatic communion of the one church with the 431 communion partners of the other church.

432 48 We commit ourselves to work together to proclaim Christ’s gospel through word and 433 deed, and to further the unity of the whole of Christ’s church, recognizing that entering a 434 relationship of full communion will bring new opportunities and levels of shared 435 evangelism, witness, and service.
